Codejock Software Partners with Microsoft to Deliver Office 2007 UI Experience

OWOSSO, Michigan, December 18, 2006 – Codejock Software, a division of Codejock Technologies, LLC a leading provider of reusable software components for Visual Studio .NET® is pleased to announce they have become a Microsoft Office 2007 UI Licensing Partner.

"It was apparent to us after working with the first Office 2007 beta, Microsoft had developed a user interface that was not only eye catching and easy to use, but also increased user productivity and was an all around great experience to work with." says Kirk Stowell, CEO and Founder, Codejock Software." The Office 2007 Licensing Program and UI Guidelines ensures that we are able to provide our customers with components that are professional and consistent with Office 2007 UI specifications. We are thrilled to partner with Microsoft, and deliver the Office 2007 UI experience to our customers. This confirms our commitment in providing the most sophisticated leading-edge user interface components available for Visual Studio .NET, MFC and ActiveX developers."

The 2007 Microsoft Office User Interface is subject to protection under U.S. and international intellectual property laws and is used by Codejock Software under license from Microsoft.
